

delivers a broad range of curricular and co-curricular programs that rigorously prepare students for all post school pathways using agreed high quality practice teaching and learning strategies for non-curriculum items and activities

	$12
	$50
(The Year 9 student wellbeing program focuses on developing and maintaining positive peer relationships, creating a sense of belonging, challenging students to tap into their full potential, provide them with sex education with regards to consent which directly supports the health curriculum, cyber safety and maintaining resilience. The program is whether a cost has been incurred, the Department's Parent Payment Policy and Guidance, Financial Help for Families Policy and any other relevant information.

